-Ajax is Firm-May Day Stiffening Up.

Business was quite brisk on the exchange today, principally through heavy sales in Martha Washington. The value of the business transacted was $30,858. The sales for the week amounted to 703,362 shares, which represented the value of $285,347.04. Of this sum $160,-414.04 is the value of the morning sales. while $124,933 reprsents the value of the transactions at the afternoon call. Among the leading features of the week have been Martha Washington, Ajax and Yankee Con. Martha Washington has claimed a great deal of attention because of its slump of 30 cents a share. On Monday it was traded in at 41, but climbed to 45 the same afternoon. The inflation evidently proved too great a temptation to some of the heavier holders, and with heavy sales of stock the price has declined rapidly to 16, the price at which the last sale of 4,000 shares was made today. Upwards of 52,000 shares changed hands today be-tween 20 and 16. Yankee Con. also surprised everyone by dropping from 3.00 to 2.00. It was stronger again to-day at 2.40, the price at which 100 shares changed hands. Ajax opened the week at 1.15, but afterwards jumped to 1.90, on news of a strike. This proved mis-leading and the stock fell away to 1.28. 1434, the price of the highest sale to-

Boss Tweed was weaker at 1914. Ben Butler participated at 10, while Star Con. sold at 58%. West Morning Glory was traded in today at 3, after opening

> Hon, A. W. McCune is feeling quite jubilant over the returns just received. from the Watseca mine, Madison county, Montana, in which he is a large owner. Under the direction of Carl Hand work has been pushed ahead for a number of months in the face of great difficulties, principal among which was the heavy flow of water. An oxidized ore was encountered for some distance below the old workings on the 100 level. This recently turned into an iron sulphide, which caused the owners some anxiety until it was found by tests just made that a splendid saving can be made by concentration. The quality of the ore insures permanency to the ore body and by reason of its adaptation to the concentration process, it makes the mine worth a great deal more than it was before the strike was made.

The first lot milled consisted of 97 tons, which averaged $25 in gold per ton. Of this 50 per cent was saved on the plates and 30 per cent in concentration. The 97 tons of ore gave about 15 tons of concentrates, the tailings carrying about $5. Supt. Hand felt that by stamping the ore finer and concentrating more carefully he could reduce the tailings still further so he tried another lot of 92 tons, which averaged $20.60 per ton. This time, he writes in a letter just received by Mr McCune, a saving of 60 per cent was made by amalgamation and 30 per cent by concentration, thus effecting a total saving of 90 per cent. The ore camilled for one-third the cost of The ore can b ized ore. The vein has been drifted on some 200 feet on the 300 level, and a body of ore having an average width of 5 feet has been exposed. The ore assays from $20 up to $250 per ton in gold. Upwards of $300,000 has been taken out of the mine by the present owners. It is now yielding about $30,000 per month, which is more than suffiient to pay the costs of development. The company has in the group about a on the ledge on which two more is wil shortly be put down.

RAILROADS WERE DOWN.

Nervous Excitement Over Declines Was Reflected in London Market.

Leading Stocks Showed Very Marked Declines-Closing Active and Quiet at Top Level for Day.

New York, May 4 .- Wall street .- The nervous sentiment caused by yesterday's sharp break in prices here was reflected in some wide declines for Americans in the London market this morning. At 2 o'clock (London time) Illinois Central showed a loss of 4% there, Union Pacific, Atchison, Denver and Rio Grande, Reading, Baltimore & Ohio and New York Central from 2 to 2%, and other leading internationals from 1 to 2 points. St. Paul alone showed any evidence of support. The selling in London was attributed to cabled orders from New York, and the opening here was feverish and excited in response. Some violent declines were shown, but St. Paul and Missouri Pacific were strongly supported, the former running up 1% and the latter two points. Atchison, Union Pacific and Baltimore & Ohio showed the most acute weakness. Four thousand shares of Atchison sold at 80% to 81%, compared with 82% last night, and 5,000 Union Pacific sold at 1201/2 to 1181/2, compared with 1221/2 last night. Baltimore & Ohio declined 2%. Among other notable losses were General El ctric, 2% points, Metropolitan Street Railway, 21/2, and Chicago Terminal Transfer preferrel 31/2. Losses of 1 to 2 points were general throughout the list, but the internationals generally were not down to the London parity. Union Pacific met support at the opening dip and rallied in a few minutes to 121%. The dealings were very heavy and the movement of prices continued very inegular and the market excited ; after the opening. There was an abfupt tally on buying by the shorts and ly supporting orders. Prices rose tapid causing the cancellation of opening losses in many stocks, particularly the Atchisons, New York Central, Manhattan, Brooklyn Transit, North-ern Pacific and the United States Steel issues. Conspicuous buying of Sugar, Western Union, Amalgamated Copper and the Tobaccos lifted them a point over yesterday's close, and Rock Island jumped to 1.64, when St. Paul was lifted to 1.80. Southwestern stocks were tter in sympathy with Missouri Pacific's improvement of 21/4. Larg Large before 11 o'clock and the market yielded again. St. Paul was most affected, losing 2½. Union Pacific fell back to losing 21/2. Union Pacific fell back to 1.19, Atchison and Rock Island 21/4 and some other stocks in the neighbo of a point. Northwestern dropped four St. Paul led a fresh rally with a rise to 1821/2 and Union Pacific rose to 1.21%. Atchison got back to within a shade of a number of the weak points of 1½ to 2½ points. The weak bank return drove St. Paul and Atchison down 2½ and 1¾ respectively, but they were supported again. The undertone continued feverish bur the fluctuations in the general list were not wide. North-western fell 6 points in all and rallied 3 and the preferred lost 6% from the last sale. Adams Express sold 11% higher than the last sale and Lackawanna rose 3. Very heavy buying of St. Paul carried it up to 1.85 and the United States Steel stocks rose vigorously over last night. The market hardened in sympathy and gained increasing strength in the closing dealings. The closing active and quite buoyant at the top level of the day.

In a space of twenty-five years the Prudential Insurance Company of America has become one of the great social and financial forces of the country. Its prosperity is a sign not simply that it is a profitable enterprize for its stockholders, but chiefly that it extends its helpful influence widely among the people and teaches the gospel of thrift and self help. The com-pany's annual statement for the year 1900 discloses the following facts: Insurance in force at the end of 1900, over $604,000.000, insurance written during the same year, over $249,000,000, paid policy-holders in twenty-five years, over $49,000,009, of which amount over $7,000,000 was poid during the year 1900.

Today the company's assets are over $40,000,000, while it has a surplus of over $6,000,000 at the end of the year 1900. The number of policies in force represents a total of over 4,000,000. Almost everybody knows just how important life insurance is, not only as an investment, but more particularly as a means of protection. The home office is in Newark, N. J., and any one desiring information in regard to the various kinds of policies issued by the Prudential should write to the presi-dent of the company, Mr. John F. Dry-den, or to the local office in Salt Lake

PLEASING EPICURES.

At one of his famous little dinners a At one of his famous little dinners a prominent professional man of Washington was greatly pleased with the saind, as were also his guests. Evidently it was partly meat and partly vegetable, but the flavor was new, distinct and undeterminable. This was so faint that one guest declared, "It's not a task at all only a smell"

a taste at all, only a smell."

At length some one suggested that the chef be asked for the receipt, upon which the host remarked, "My man greatly dislikes being asked for receipts. On this occasion, however, his vanity may overcome him if we tell him how greatly we have enjoyed the dinner, and the salad in particular. At any rate, we'll see."

The Frenchman soon appeared, and was visibly affected, not to say elate by the compliments.
